CLOTHES WRINGER.

PRICE.....$7.

WE HAVE SECURED THE ENTIRE CONTROL OF the above celebrated CLOTHES WRINGER for Kentucky and part of the State of Indiana. We are satisfied that it is the most simple, efficient and durable made. Tens of thousands of these machines have been sold where they have been introduced. We are prepared to effect sales on the most favorable terms to wit:

Familiars use them one month, and if at the end of that time, they are not entirely satisfied they are worth what they cost, they can return them and we will refund the money.

We will give a liberal discount to merchants in order to have them act as agents for us.

EPITHEA—Call and see them and get a circular nos. 60.

PITKIN, WIARD & CO.

Volunteers! Volunteers!

YOUNGSTERS ARE CALLED TO FILL up the old regiments of Kentucky and all those who desire to share in the work of noble endeavor are invited to do so. Those who are able to secure a place to themselves by any means, are to be preferred, but those who are unable to do so, may apply to the State Adjutant General, or to the Commander-in-Chief of the State Militia, or to any of the State Commissioners of Volunteer Officers.

The pay of a private is $12 a month, and allowance of $12 a month, living in advance.

If he be a foot soldier, he may be pretty sure of soon being promoted to a rank in the cavalry, and one hundred and thirty in every regiment, and these will get his pay. There is also a good chance for a commissioned officer, and those who have been recommended as such will receive a good commission as soon as the war is over.

We see that Fernando Wood has made a move to see if peace commissioners can't do something for a restoration. It is ominous that the proposition was only laid on the table
by a majority of eight. A change of five votes would have carried it. In peace prepare for war, is a good maxim. It war prepare for peace, is equally good. It may be charged that this will encourage the rebels. It does not, for the other side, which will accept only its ideas and purposes. It has control of vast resources in men and money; but power can't accomplish impossibilities, and that is just what these radicals are trying to do.

The old Union is a possibility. It has been for generations a glorious Government, and none of its parts will ever make as good a one. It is not worth while for these extremes to be filled with wrath at each other. Neither is half as bad as the other thinks. If either is better than he is, he would not be half party to the other.

We see that Fernando Wood has made a
move to see if peace commissioners can't do
something for a restoration. It is ominous
that the proposition was only laid on the table
by a majority of eight. A change of five votes would have carried it. In peace prepare for war, is a good maxim. It war prepare for peace, is equally good. It may be charged
that this will encourage the rebels. It does not, for the other side, which will accept only its
ideas and purposes. It has control of vast resources in men and money; but power can't accomplish impossibilities, and that is just
what these radicals are trying to do.

The radicals are quarreling with Lincoln because he made the decision of the courts a condition of his radical acts. He is not to blame for what he could not help and what he will prevent if he can.

Welles, in his report of the Naval Department, takes the credit of closing the port of Charleston to the navy. It was the impression that that little trick was performed by the army under Gen. Gillmore.

Wendell Phillips is talking about how he has lived and labored for abolition. The precise manner can be discovered by spelling the word lived, as witches say their prayers, backwards.

The French iron-clad fleet has gone to Madera. From what we have heard of their seagoing qualities we should expect they would be more pleased to go to Port.

The dispatches are again announcing that the rebels would come over to us in bodies! &c. That is just the trouble. They never come to stay except as "bodies."

The New York Independent says Mr.
Lincoln wears Kentucky like a collar. He certainly tried to write his name as its owner on it with the bayonet last August.

The New York papers say a whole fleet is now after the Chesapeake, and expresses the opinion that she will be overtaken. That depends a little on how fleet they are.

From the claim the radicals represent the feel in this State, with all the advantages which would suppose, on the side of the former.
Which really played the tune to which the party would dance, was the question. It must be confessed that the Gazette has got the advantage. It has actually won four-ninths of the game, when, to the observer, there was not behind the curtain, its chances were poor, indeed, for any show at all.

This success has made the Gazette very concerned and supercilious. It treats its rivals with indignity, bordering on contempt.
The latter makes no reply, for since the loss of the four-ninths from this State, who went over, horse, foot and dragon, to the Gazette, the Louisville Journal is confounded into silence in the face of the taunts from the Gazette; so much so that it is letting slip an opportunity to do something, when it may have a chance again.

A Senator is to be elected, and the Journal will, for the sake of harmony, say nothing, but urge that the election immediately take place.

Next year there is to be a Presidential election. There will be two candidates—one Abraham Lincoln, and the other a Democrat.
If there are free elections, parties will be formed next year on this point, and it will be of some importance which side the Senator now elected will take. Is the Journal going to lie low and let the Gazette get the Senate?
In that case, the editor of the Gazette will call after a while.

In these times the seat of war is considered the country's seat of honor.

The New York Tribune exults over Governor Bramlette's message.

The plan of enlisting negroes is a foul log black-mail.

The fond of jewelry is not to worship
mon but many gauds.

HAYER FOR JEFF. DAVIS.—A correspondent of the Richmond Whig, in recommending the prayer be made for Jefferson Davis, thus cates-gulates him:

Surely it would not be amiss if every good, true, and sincere Christian were to join in beseeching the Father of all Wisdom to mercifully revert the nation to the spirit of the tendencies of heart which will enable him to meet his arduous trials in confidence in his own strength than in that of his Maker, and that forgiving, kind, and true, which shall induce him to return to the command and assistance of the wisest men of the nation.

The plain, practical question on hand is who shall administer this State Government next four years? There is no other point of any great consequence now. Both parties will be to it. The Journal is afraid of the question, and the question is, shall the main question be now put? Will you vote the Republican or the opposition ticket next year? The outcry of Union is very well to bumble people. There is no such question in Kentucky. It has been settled for some time. How are you going to restore the Union? What are the means to be used? Will you take the Republican or the opposition ticket? They are definite enough.

TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY DOL- LARS REWARD.

On Saturday, the 5th of December, Mr. Thomas S. Venable, a citizen of Owensboro, then on a visit to Louisville, mysteriously disappeared, and from that day to the present time no traces of him have been discovered, although diligent search has been instituted.

Mr. Venable is a young man about twenty-two years of age, with red hair, fair complexion, about five feet six or seven inches high—weights about one hundred and twenty pounds, and apparently of frail and delicate constitution.

We, the undersigned, will pay $250 for any positive information of his whereabouts if alive, or if dead, for the recovery and delivery of his body.

THE FAIR AT MASONIC TEMPLE—SECOND NIGHT.—The ladies' fair at the Masonic Temple, given for the benefit of the poor, is a most complete success, and the crowd last night was larger than on the opening night.

The hall is decorated in the most appropriate manner, and a sight at the beautiful tables which have been so nicely arranged with delicate handiwork any one can afford to sit at.

The fair will continue during the entire week, and we hope that on each successive evening the crowd will be increased, and the ladies more than amply rewarded for their efforts in the cause of suffering humanity. No one can spend an hour more pleasantly than by attending the fair, and while they enjoy themselves they will have the double satisfaction of knowing that they have contributed to alleviate the wants of the suffering poor.

In addition to the fair of nights, the ladies have prepared through the day all the delicacies which can be had at any time, and we hope that our citizens will patronize this temporary restaurant.

We noticed at the fair last night a great want for change, and we suggest that persons visiting the fair provide themselves with change. To-night we hope to see the hall again crowded.

Chas. Connally, drunkenness and disorderly conduct; remanded for 90 days.

Mike Wall, on same charge; went out to rusticate for 60 days in default.

James Foriner, on same charge; went out to recompute for 60 days in default.

George (slave of Peter Smith), drunkenness and disorderly conduct; 10 stripes.

John McClure and William Banks, charged with stealing tobacco from sundry persons; each held in $400 to answer in Circuit Court.

Jacob Habe, assailant on his wife, Mary; discharged.

Wm. Davis, suspected felon; held in $200 for one year. Bailed.

D. W. Jager, Jas. Laha and John Hunt, all boys; held for six months. All went out.

Elizabeth Sullivan, drunkenness, &c.; discharged.

YOUTHFUL DEPRAVITY.—Yesterday morning three boys, the eldest not over twelve years of age, were presented before the police court as suspected felons, and sent to the workhouse for six months in default of sentence. These boys belong to the gang known as the "Forty Thieves." It is distressing to see the number of boys who are running through the streets of Louisville, and being brought up in all kinds of vice, and who are permitted to run at large because there is no proper place where they can be confined.

The city erected, at a cost of sixty thousand dollars, a house of refuge, where these boys could be confined and brought up to be useful men, and some of them ornaments to society. The house of refuge is now held by the military, and some effort should be made to get them to turn it over to our civil authorities, that it may be used for the purpose for which it was originally intended.

DISTINGUISHED ARRIVALS.—Major General Frank P. Blair arrived in this city last evening from the front, en route for Washington, to take his seat in the House of Representatives, of which he is member elect. He left on last night's train. Major General John A. Logan succeeds General Blair in command of the Fifteenth army corps. Brigadier General Wool of Ohio, also arrived from the front yesterday, and is staying at the Gal. Hotel. Major General Hunter, who arrived Monday, is also staying at the Gal. Hotel.

THE LEBANON BRANCH RAILROAD MORTGAGED TO THE CITY.—I will be remembered once since the council passed an ordinance leasing to the Nashville railroad company $200,000, for the purpose of building the Lebanon road, and that they were to receive in return a mortgage on the Lebanon branch of the road. This ordinance was submitted to a vote of the people and carried. The mortgage was given for the $200,000, and upon this, to make it valid, the city has to place a one thousand dollar internal revenue stamp.

ANOTHER STREET ROBBERY.—O'last Thursday night was an old man, by the name of Rees, returning to his home, who was assaulted, at the corner of Eighth and Jefferson streets, by a couple of midnight assassins, who deprived him of money or life, at the same time displaying a revolver. They took the old man's pocket-book, which contained but one dollar, as Mr. Rees had left his money at home before going out. The parties who committed this outrage were dressed in the garb of soldiers.

THE PLACE TO BUY YOUR CHRISTMAS PRESENTS IS MAD. UNG'S, on Market street, above Second, where will be found the largest assortment of toys and articles suitable for Christmas presents. Mad. Ung has taken great care in selecting her goods, and has a great assortment as any house in this city. Persons wishing to buy will do well to give her a call, as she sells very cheap, and considers it no trouble to show goods.

FIRE.—The alarm of fire about 7 o'clock last night was occasioned by the partial burning of a small house on Fourth street, between Main and the river. The flames were extinguished without the assistance of the fire-engines, and before much damage was done.

AN ORNANCE REMITTING THE FIRE ASSESSMENT AGAINST THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL ORPHAN ASYLUM, amounting to $346 75, which passed the Council at its last meeting, was yesterday approved by the Mayor.

THREE PERSONS ROBBED WHILE ASLEEP—ONE AWAKES AND PURSUES THE THIEF.—Louisville at the present time is infested with a gang of desperate villains, and during the past week or two we have been called upon to record some of the most daring robberies and burglaries, and unprovoked murders, assaults that have ever blackened the fair fame of our city. We learn that about 3 o'clock yesterday morning a robbery was committed, for which there is no record. A thief entered the house of Mrs. Martin, situated at the corner of Eighth and Jefferson streets, and ransacked the entire building. He proceeded to a room occupied by three Lieutenant, all of whom were in bed asleep. The Lieutenant, whose names we were unable to learn, had before retiring taken the precaution of placing their pants beneath their pillows. The thief entered the room, and so quiet was he in his operations that he succeeded in removing the pants of two of the parties, and abstracting their pocket books and watches. One of the pocket books contained one hundred and five dollars, while there was fifty dollars in the other. He then went to the bed where the third party was still asleep, and in removing his pants from beneath the pillow he awoke the Lieutenant, who jumped from the bed and started in pursuit of the thief, who had already started to run. He pursued him down stairs, out the front door into a church yard near by, when the rascal threw down the pants and succeeded in making good his escape. While running from the house to the church yard he abstracted from the Lieutenant's pants a fine watch and his pocket book, containing one hundred and forty dollars. This was a most bold and daring robbery, and shows that there are in the city a set of desperate villains, and every effort should be made to bring them to justice. Let the police arrest all strangers in the city who are out at an unreasonable hour of the night and confine them in jail if they are unable to give any satisfactory account of themselves, and in this way a number of these scoundrels that have become so common occurrence lately will be prevented.

THE MAYOR GONE TO PITTSBURG TO PURCHASE COAL.—It will be remembered that at a special meeting of the Council on Monday night an ordinance passed both boards authorizing the Mayor to borrow, on the credit of the city, $50,000 for the purchase of coal. This coal is to be sold in such quantities, at such prices and to such persons as the commissioners of the sinking fund shall direct.

The commissioners of the sinking fund are Mayor Kase, Henry Wolford and Wm. Terry. The ordinance was approved by the Mayor yesterday and became a law. The ordinance left discretionary with the Mayor to purchase the coal whenever he thought best and where it could be obtained at the lowest price.

The fair will continue during the entire week, and we hope that on each successive evening the crowd will be increased, and the ladies more than amply rewarded for their efforts in the cause of suffering humanity. No one can spend an hour more pleasantly than by attending the fair, and while they enjoy themselves they will have the double satisfaction of knowing that they have contributed to alleviate the wants of the suffering poor.

In addition to the fair of nights, the ladies have prepared through the day all the delicacies which can be had at any time, and we hope that our citizens will patronize this temporary restaurant.

THE COUNTERFEIT TWENTY-DOLLAR GREENBACKS.—This counterfeit may be easily detected by a close examination of the bill. The engraving of the Genius of Liberty is badly blurred and full of rough, open white and black marks on the lower end of the robe.

The medallion dye is printed in carmine ink, very clear and well executed. A careful examination is all that is necessary to detect this new counterfeit.

RECEIVED, A large assortment of lace sets, head dresses and ladies dress caps, for holidays, at Mrs. T. C. Middleton's Lace Store, 515 Fourth street, de15 d15

CINCINNATI, December 5, 1863.

I hereby certify that in accordance with the law regulating the sale of alcoholic liquors in the State of Ohio, I have inspected an article styled "Bell's Distilled Bitters," sold by T. C. Middleton, 515 Fourth street, and find it to be free from deleterious impurities. It is frequently exceeding three million degrees of alcohol.

Prudence and self-interest must force the minds of those contemplating the formation of National Banking Associations, as well as the minds of all who have idle money on their hands to the prompt conclusion that they should lose no time in subscribing to this most popular Loan.

It will soon be beyond their reach and advance to a handsome premium, as was the result with the Bank of America.

It is a SIX PER CENT. LOAN, THE INTEREST AND PRINCIPAL PAYABLE IN COIN, THIS YIELDING OVER NINE PER CENT. PER ANNUM at the present rate of premium on coin.

The Government requires all duties on imports to be paid in coin; those duties have for a long time past amounted to a sum greater than a million of dollars daily.

[Special to the Times.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Lee's cavalry endeavored Saturday to cut off Meade's communication with Washington by destroying the bridge across Cedar Creek, near Catlett's Station. About 700 made a dash at the guard posted at the bridge, but were driven off after a short fight.

The President has yielded to the demand made by the Loyall League Representatives, and Gen. Scheffold has been removed and ordered to report at Wash.

Letters have been received here from prominent conservative members of the rebel Congress from North Carolina asking officially upon what terms the Southern States would be permitted to re-enter the Union.

The inundation of the army with political Brigadier Generals has received such earnest protest from Grant and Hooker that it is not very certain that the flood will be stayed in future, but the Congress will be compelled to act.

The Clerk of the Senate Military Committee, the House Librarian, and several other minor officials at the Capitol, suspected with sympathy for the secessionists, were to-day removed by the President, offering parole to all who will return to their regiments within thirty days.

The Times' correspondent, writing in camp near Fowlersburg, Va., says: "Brie G. Wild, commanding the corps under him, with the unusual permission, has undertaken a most important expedition. His brigade left this vicinity Saturday last, in two columns, one taking the route through Princess Anne county, Virginia, to the Great Bridge, and the other following the tow-path of the Dismal Swamp Canal, now and for some months outside our lines."

The columns united at Hentzonton, N. C., whence an advance was made on Elizabeth City, which was occupied yesterday without opposition.

WASHINGTON, December 14.—There are additional reasons for believing that General Schofield will soon be removed, and a man whose heart is with us are called radicals will be put in his place. As to any removal in the Cabinet, nothing is positively known.

Sesetary Bayard, of Delaware, never having taken the anti-revolutionary oath required by an act of the last session, was informally reminded of the fact by the President to-day, and requested to resign. He refused to do so, and take it, and he replied in the negative, adding that if the Senate, by formal vote, required him to take, he should resign. The question is probably to be brought up to-morrow, but there is no doubt if he keeps his promise but that Delaware will have a more fitting representative.

A most important concession has been made to volunteer officers in the navy by the Government. That article will be inserted, I understand, in the regulations to be issued the same manner as regular naval officers.

A letter from Morris Island says the rebels are working very hard on Sullivan's Island, and are laying hold of wood and shelling Forts Gregg and Wadsworth. They have occasionally shown themselves, but are always very careful to avoid a fight. The rebels are said to be very savage and do not spare our men when they catch them. Reconnaissances are frequently made from the fleet and much valuable information obtained. Our troops are not informed.

A special joint committee will probably be appointed to consider what legislation is necessary to enable the loyal people of the South to protect themselves. Some bill will be introduced in the Senate by the President to-morrow. To this committee will probably be referred the bills now before Congress on the subject of slavery and such other bills as may be introduced which bear upon the general topic.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—John H. McHenry, of Kentucky, filed his papers to-day before the new Committee on Elections, contesting the seat of Yeaman, the present Representative.

The carpetbagger law was proposed to be amended in the following way, as follows: That the sum of $300 shall be paid to the collector of the revenue from the collection of the tax on slaves to military service.

Senator Hale's bill introduced to abolish slavery provides that heretear all persons who have been born in the United States and those who have not, and who are not citizens of other persons $300. Twenty-five dollars per month is then paid for the enrollment of each veteran volunteer, and $15 for every other volunteer. $100,000 is appropriated for the bounties.

This sum will be paid to the collector of the revenue from the collection of the tax on slaves to military service.
